REGISTRATION OF LEARNERS FOR HOME EDUCATION

REGISTRATION PROCESS
• Develop submission for registration together with registration letters after conducting site verification visits
• Developed submission is forwarded en route via protocol for the Head of Department’s (HOD) signature for approval/disapproval
• Inform parents in writing about the outcome of their applications (through post)
• Develop submission for registration together with registration letters after conducting verification site visits
• Developed submission is forwarded en route via protocol for the Head of Department’s (HOD) signature for approval/disapproval
• Inform parents in writing about the outcome of their applications (through post)

• Monitoring
• Officials conduct monitoring and support activities including home visit to monitor learning provision.
• Monitoring visits to be conducted at least twice a year on a specific site.

• Assessment
• Receive and record learner’s Annual Progress Reports
• Assess Learners Reports against Learning Outcomes

• Application for Registration
• Submission of incomplete information.
• Legislation does stipulate a cut-off date for application to register for home education.
• Parents bridge Policy on Home Education with regards tutoring services
• Submission for registration is normally delayed en-route for the final signature and this result in the sub-directorate bridging 30 day timeframe stipulated in the legislation
• Communication Strategy
  On numerous occasions posted mail indicating the outcome of the applicants application is remain uncollected or unclaimed at local post offices, subsequently it is returned to the Department.

• 5.3. Database Update
  Updating of data is another challenge because several parents do not inform the office of the new status about their registered learners, e.g. promotion or retention in grades.

• Annual Re-registration
  • A number of parents especially those affiliated with specific trusts fail to provide the department with re-registration forms and annual assessment reports, sighting that re-registration process is not stipulated in the policy.
  • Upon investigation regarding the poor response towards re-registration, it came to the attention of the Department that parents do not re-register because they reckon that the practice is not legislated.
  • Non-compliance to re-register also affects the updating of the home education database.

• Illegal Operations
  A few numbers of declined applicants do not appeal to the MEC as per legislation, to dispute their dissatisfaction with regards to the HOD’s decision. However they continue to home educate their children unregistered and this gives rise to a number of illegally operating home education sites nationally.

• Annual Assessment
  • A minority of parents adhere to legislation regarding submission of annual reports at the end of each year.
  • A majority of received annual reports reflect pass percentages between 90% and 100%. The overall results for home education learners put Department in a predicament because home sites are not monitored as per operational requirement due to lack of capacity in the Directorate. These outcomes raise uncertainties from the Department’s side questioning the authenticity of assessment and the correct skills applied by the parent teacher.
  • The reflected outcomes are normally compared to the last report given by the previous school. Though this is not conclusive however it remains a problem especially with parents who are not well-informed with the current curriculum.

• Annual Assessmen
  • These outcomes raise uncertainties from the Department’s side questioning the authenticity of assessment and the correct skills applied by the parent teacher.
  • The reflected outcomes are normally compared to the last report given by the previous school. Though this is not conclusive however it remains a problem especially with parents who are not well-informed with the current curriculum.
• Recommendations

• It is essential for the Home Education sub-directorate to gather all home education stakeholders including Curriculum Service Providers to communicate the legislative framework.
• The reason for such road shows is to educate both the stakeholders and the public in general about the legislation and operations of the Department regarding home education.
• Meetings ought to be held twice per term, per cluster.

• Their concerns and relevant information are recorded.
• The required relief sought is determined.
• Complainants are advised to submit their complaint or query in writing.

4.3. CORRESPONDENCE

E-mails and letters received by the Directorate

HOD and MEC REFERRALS

• These are referrals received from the office of the HOD or the MEC.
• These queries take precedence over other queries.
• Responses need to take the form of a thoroughly prepared submission.
  Turnaround time – two days.

MEDIA QUERIES

• Take precedence over all other types of queries.
• Thorough investigation needs to be undertaken.
• Information needs to be thoroughly checked to ensure that the MEC, HOD or Department of Education is not brought into disrepute.
• Protocol must be observed.
HOW ARE QUERIES HANDLED

• The recommendation/s of the Independent Schools Directorate are contained in the submission.
• After corrections are made and checked, the Director signs the submission and it is sent to the Chief Director's office for her signature.
• Should all be in order, it is then forwarded to the office of the DDG for his signature.
• The submission is then sent to the office of the HOD for his approval of the recommendation.
• Read and understand the case. Get to know the facts of the case.
• Determine the problem and possible solutions.
• Call the complainant to obtain further information, if necessary.
• Adhere to the ‘audi alteram partem’ principle: hear the other side – Call the other party to get their side of the story.
• Get a clear understanding of both sides of the story.
• Determine the legislation that you would use to resolve the query.
• Determine the outcome and notify the parties thereof. Should the issue be a complicated one, call a meeting of the parties concerned to come to a solution. Make a determination and notify the parties thereof.
• A submission, together with a letter to the complainant, informing him/her of the outcome of the investigation, has to be prepared and handed to the Director for checking and proof reading.

CHALLENGES

6.1. WALK IN QUERIES

• Trivial issues that could have been resolved had the complainant contacted the school.
• One sided stories.
