INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION

Read this page carefully before you begin to answer the questions.

1. Do NOT attempt to read the entire question paper. Consult the Table of Contents on the next page and mark the numbers of the questions set on the texts you have studied this year. Read these questions and choose the ones you wish to answer.

2. This question paper consists of FOUR sections:

   SECTION A: Novel (35)
   SECTION B: Drama (35)
   SECTION C: Short stories (35)
   SECTION D: Poetry (35)

3. Answer questions from TWO sections, as follows:

   SECTION A: NOVEL
   Answer the question on the novel that you have studied.

   SECTION B: DRAMA
   Answer the question on the drama that you have studied.

   SECTION C: SHORT STORIES
   Answer the questions on BOTH extracts.

   SECTION D: POETRY
   Answer the questions on BOTH poems.

   Use the checklist on page 4 to assist you.

4. Follow the instructions at the beginning of each section carefully.

5. Number your answers exactly as the questions are numbered in the question paper.

6. Start EACH section on a NEW page.

7. Spend approximately 60 minutes on each section.

8. Write neatly and legibly.

NOTE: Ensure that you have answered questions on TWO sections only.
SECTION A: NOVEL

In this section, there are questions set on the following novels:

- TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD by Harper Lee
- LORD OF THE FLIES by William Golding
- A GRAIN OF WHEAT by Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o

Answer ALL the questions on the novel you have studied.

QUESTION 1: TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD

Read BOTH extracts from the novel below and answer the questions set on each. The number of marks allocated to each question serves as a guide to the expected length of your answer.

NOTE: Answer the questions set on BOTH extracts, i.e. QUESTION 1.1 AND QUESTION 1.2.

1.1 [The men confront Atticus.]

Jem shrieked and tried to catch me, but I had a lead on him and Dill. I pushed my way through dark smelly bodies and burst into the circle of light.

'H-ey, Atticus?'

I thought he would have a fine surprise, but his face killed my joy. A flash of plain fear was going out of his eyes, but returned when Dill and Jem wriggled into the light.

There was a smell of stale whisky and pig-pen about, and when I glanced around I discovered that these men were strangers. They were not the people I saw last night. Hot embarrassment shot through me: I had leaped triumphantly into a ring of people I had never seen before.

Atticus got up from his chair, but he was moving slowly, like an old man. He put the newspaper down very carefully, adjusting its creases with lingering fingers. They were trembling a little.

'Go home, Jem,' he said. 'Take Scout and Dill home.'

We were accustomed to prompt, if not always cheerful acquiescence to Atticus's instructions, but from the way he stood Jem was not thinking of budging.

'Go home, I said.'

[Chapter 15]

1.1.5 Identify and explain ONE theme of the novel evident in this extract. (3)

1.1.6 Do you think Atticus's actions in this extract can be admired? Discuss your view. (3)

AND
1.2 [The children are returning home from the pageant when they are attacked.]

From somewhere near by came scuffling, kicking sounds, sounds of shoes and flesh scraping dirt and roots. Someone rolled against me and I felt Jem. He was up like lightning and pulling me with him but, though my head and shoulders were free, I was so entangled we didn't get very far.

We were nearly to the road when I felt Jem's hand leave me, felt him jerk backwards to the ground. More scuffling, and there came a dull crunching sound and Jem screamed.

I ran in the direction of Jem's scream and sank into a flabby male stomach. Its owner said, 'Uff!' and tried to catch my arms, but they were tightly pinioned. His stomach was soft but his arms were like steel. He slowly squeezed the breath out of me. I could not move. Suddenly he was jerked backwards and flung on the ground, almost carrying me with him. I thought, Jem's up.

One's mind works very slowly at times. Stunned, I stood there dumbly. The scuffling noises were dying; someone wheezed and the night was still again.

Still but for a man breathing heavily, breathing heavily and staggering. I thought he went to the tree and leaned against it. He coughed violently, a sobbing, bone-shaking cough.

QUESTION 2: LORD OF THE FLIES

Read BOTH extracts from the novel below and answer the set questions. The number of marks allocated to each question serves as a guide to the expected length of your answer.

NOTE: Answer the questions set on BOTH extracts, i.e. QUESTION 2.1 and QUESTION 2.2.

2.1 [The boys have just made their first fire.]

'Ve haven't made a fire,' he said, 'what's any use. We couldn't keep a fire like that going, not if we tried.'
'A fat lot you tried,' said Jack contemptuously. 'You just sat.'
'We used his specs,' said Simon, smearing a black cheek with his forearm.
'He helped that way.'
'I got the conch,' said Piggy indignantly. 'You let me speak!'
'The conch doesn't count on top of the mountain,' said Jack, 'so you shut up.'
'I got the conch in my hand.'
'Put on green branches,' said Maurice. 'That's the best way to make smoke.'
'I got the conch –'
Jack turned fiercely.
'You shut up!' Piggy wilted. Ralph took the conch from him and looked round the circle of boys.
'We've got to have special people for looking after the fire. Any day there may be a ship out there' – he waved his arm at the taut wire of the horizon – 'and if we have a signal going they'll come and take us off. And another thing. We ought to have more rules. Where the conch is, that's a meeting. The same up here as down there.'
They assented. Piggy opened his mouth to speak, caught Jack's eye and shut it again.

[Chapter 2]
2.1.1 The boys have just made their first fire on the island.

(a) Whose idea is it to make a fire?

(b) What is this boy's main reason for wanting a fire?

2.1.2 Refer to line 1: 'We haven't made ... what's any use.'

(a) Explain why Piggy feels this way.

(b) What are the consequences of the fire? State TWO points.

2.1.3 Choose the correct answer to complete the following sentence.
Write only the letter (A–D) next to the question number (2.1.3) in the ANSWER BOOK.

The word 'contemptuously' (line 3) means ...

A politely.
B admiringly.
C respectfully.
D disrespectfully.

2.1.4 Compare the characters of Jack and Piggy as they are revealed in this extract.

2.1.5 Quote a sentence from the extract to prove that the following is TRUE:

Jack intimidates Piggy.

2.1.6 Explain how Ralph shows leadership skills in this extract. Use your OWN words.

2.1.7 Do you think Simon can be regarded as a symbol of everything good in this novel? Discuss your view.

AND

2.2 [The hunters attack Ralph and Piggy.]

'Piggy, what's wrong?'
Piggy looked at him in astonishment.
'Do you mean the –?'
'No, not it ... I mean ... what makes things break up like they do?'
Piggy rubbed his glasses slowly and thought. When he understood how far Ralph had gone towards accepting him he flushed pinkly with pride.
'I dunno, Ralph. I expect it's him.'
'Jack?'
'Jack.' A taboo was evolving round that word too.
Ralph nodded solemnly. 'Yes,' he said, 'I suppose it must be.'

The forest near them burst into uproar. Demoniac figures with faces of white and red and green rushed out howling, so that the littluns fled screaming. Out of the corner of his eye, Ralph saw Piggy running. Two figures rushed at the fire and he prepared to defend himself but they grabbed half-burnt branches and raced away along the beach. The three others stood still, watching Ralph; and he saw that the tallest of them, stark naked save for paint and a belt, was Jack.

Ralph had his breath back and spoke. 'Well?'

Jack ignored him, lifted his spear and began to shout. 'Listen all of you. Me and my hunters, we’re living along the beach by a flat rock. We hunt and feast and have fun. If you want to join my tribe come and see us. Perhaps I’ll let you join. Perhaps not.'

QUESTION 3: A GRAIN OF WHEAT

Read BOTH extracts from the novel below and answer the set questions. The number of marks allocated to each question serves as a guide to the expected length of your answer.

NOTE: Answer the questions set on BOTH extracts, i.e. QUESTION 3.1 AND QUESTION 3.2.

3.1 [Kihika is captured.]

A price was put on his head. Anybody who brought Kihika, dead or alive, would receive a huge sum of money. A year later, Kihika was captured alone at the edge of the Kinenie Forest. Believe the news? The man who compelled trees and mountains to move, the man who could go for ten miles crawling on his stomach through sand and thorny bush, was surely beyond the arm of the whiteman.

Kihika was tortured. Some say that the neck of a bottle was wedged into his body through the anus as the white people in the Special Branch tried to wrest the secrets of the forest from him. Others say that he was offered a lot of money and a free trip to England to shake the hand of the new woman on the throne. But he would not speak.

Kihika was hanged in public, one Sunday, at Rung’ei Market, not far from where he had once stood calling for blood to rain on and water the tree of freedom. A combined force of Homeguards and Police whipped and drove people from Thabai and other ridges to see the body of the rebel dangling on the tree, and learn.

3.1.1 Explain why 'a price was put on his head' (line 1). (2)

3.1.2 Refer to line 4: 'A year later ... the Kinenie Forest'

(a) Who betrays Kihika? (1)

(b) Explain why this person betrays Kihika. (2)

3.1.3 Write down FOUR character traits of Kihika. (4)
3.1.4 In lines 8–12 Kihika is tortured ('Kihika was tortured ... would not speak').

(a) Why is Kihika tortured? Use your OWN words.

(b) Choose the correct answer to complete the following sentence. Write only the letter (A–D) next to the question number (3.1.4(b)) in the ANSWER BOOK.

Kihika’s torture can best be described as ...

A mild.
B good.
C bad.
D barbaric.

3.1.5 The people of Thabai are forced to come and see Kihika's body 'dangling on the tree' (lines 16–17).

(a) What is the officials' goal in doing this?

(b) Do the officials succeed in their goal? Give reasons for your answer.

3.1.6 Refer to the novel as a whole. Do you think the Kenyan people can be admired in their fight for freedom? Discuss your view.

AND

3.2 [Karanja is leaving Thabai.]

Soon the dust and the soot soaked and started to slug down. He walked towards the bus stop at Thabai Trading Centre, through the greying mist, looking neither to the right nor to the left. A bus arrived at the stop, dropped passengers and then went away. Karanja walked in the steady pace of a person not in a hurry to reach his destination. He saw Mumbi (she must have come out of that bus) cross the road into the village, shielding her head from the drizzle by a Gikoi. His heart beat suddenly rose from near paralysis and quickened at the sight of Mumbi. Caught in the mist and the drizzle, she appeared more beautiful than ever before. But how could he forget the deep concern on her face as she bent over Gikonyo, after the fall? This had thrust Karanja back into pain and despair. If she had only glanced at him, ever so slightly, he might have hoped. But she had seemed unaware of his existence.

5.2 [Mandisa and Thando speak the night before the funeral.]

THANDO: This has nothing to do with my father. It's what I want to do. That's what this community expects of us and you are going to do the same.

MANDISA: OK. I will stay. What are we going to eat? Can I help?

THANDO: That sounds better. I'll whip up something quickly.

Exits to the kitchen.

MANDISA: Listen. After the funeral why don't you come with me to Johannesburg? I've decided I am going to stay for a few extra days. You know I have to see a few designers. Look we can spend a week there together. Please say yes!

THANDO: Nandipa is the best. I have one of her designs. I will show you. I bought one of her dresses when we went to the Rand Easter Show with Mpho last year. Wait, let me show you.

Exits to put on the designer dress.

The phone rings.

[from the bedroom]: Answer it, Mandisa.

MANDISA: Hello, Makhaya residence. Can I help you? No ... He is not in. He has just walked out. Yes ... I am sure he will be back soon. Thando is not available. Can I take a message? Yes. Mrs [spelling it out] P O T G ... I E T E R. Thank you. I will tell him.

THANDO: [from the bedroom]: Who was that?

MANDISA: [mispronouncing the name]: A Mrs Potgieter.

THANDO: Mrs Potgieter! That's my father's former Chief Librarian. What did she say?

TOTAL SECTION B: 35
SECTION C: SHORT STORIES

In this section, there are questions set on the following short stories:

- 'MANHOOD' by John Wain
- 'THE SISTERS' by Pauline Smith

QUESTION 6

Read the following extracts from the TWO short stories and answer the questions set on each. The number of marks allocated to each question serves as a guide to the expected length of your answer.

NOTE: Answer the questions set on BOTH extracts, i.e. QUESTION 6.1 AND QUESTION 6.2.

'MANHOOD'

6.1 [Rob's parents hear of his boxing plans.]

Mr Willison put out a hand and felt Rob's biceps. 'Not bad, not bad at all,' he said critically. 'But if you're going to be a boxer and represent the school, you'll need more power up there. I tell you what. We'll train together.'

'That'll be fun,' said Rob. 'I'm training at school too.'

'What weight do they put you in?'

'It isn't weight, it's age. Under fifteen. Then when you get over fifteen you get classified into weights.'

'Well,' said Mr Willison, tying his tie, 'you'll be in a good position for the under-fifteens. You've got six months to play with. And there's no reason why you shouldn't steadily put muscle on all the time. I suppose you'll be entered as a team, for tournaments and things?'

'Yes. There's a big one at the end of next term. I'll be in that.'

Confident, joking, they went down to breakfast. 'Two eggs for Rob, Mum,' said Mr Willison, 'He's in training. He's going to be a heavyweight.'

'A heavyweight what?' Mrs Willison asked, teapot in hand.

'Boxer,' Rob smiled.

Grace Willison put down the teapot, her lips compressed, and looked from one to the other. 'Boxing?' she repeated.

'Boxing,' Mr Willison replied calmly.

'Over my dead body,' said Mrs Willison. 'That's one sport I'm definite that he's never going in for.'

6.1.1 Complete the following sentences by using the words in the list below. Write only the word next to the question number (6.1.1(a)–6.1.1(d)) in the ANSWER BOOK.

jogging; punching; appetite; sixteen;

6.1.6 Explain BOTH the LITERAL and FIGURATIVE meaning of ‘Over my dead body’ in line 20. (2)

6.1.7 Do you feel sorry for Rob when he is exposed as a liar? Discuss your view. (3)

AND

'THE SISTERS'

6.2 [Sukey is speaking to her father.]

'Pa, pray if you like, but I shall not pray with you. There is no God or surely He would have saved our Marta. But if there is a God as surely will He burn our souls in Hell for selling Marta to old Jan Redlinghuis.'
From that time I could do what I would with my father, and my heart was bitter to all the world but my sister Marta. When my father said to me:

'Is it not wonderful, Sukey, what we have done with the water that old Jan Redlinghuis lets pass to my furrow?'
I answered him: 'What is now wonderful? It is blood that we lead on our lands to water them. Did not my mother die for it? And was it not for this that we sold my sister Marta to old Jan Redlinghuis?'
Yes, I said that. It was as if my heart must break to see my father water his lands while old Jan Redlinghuis held my sister Marta up to shame before all Platkops.
I went across the river to my sister Marta as often as I could, but not once after he married her did old Jan Redlinghuis let Marta come back to my father's house.

'Look now, Sukey de Jager,' he would say to me, 'your father has sold me his daughter for his lands. Let him now look to his lands and leave me his daughter.' And that was all he would say about it.

6.2.1 Explain why Marta de Jager marries Jan Redlinghuis. (3)

6.2.2 Why does Sukey refuse to pray in line 1 ('Pa, pray if ... pray with you')? (2)

6.2.3 Refer to lines 6–9: 'Is it not ... to water them.'

(a) Write down ONE word that best describes Sukey's feelings when her father says, 'Is it not ... to my furrow?' (lines 6–7). (1)

(b) Identify the figure of speech in lines 8–9: 'It is blood ... to water them.' (1)

(c) Explain how this figure of speech contributes to the meaning of these lines. (2)

6.2.4 Identify and discuss ONE theme of the short story which is evident in this extract. (4)

6.2.5 Do you agree that innocent women are sacrificed at the hands of selfish, greedy men in this story? Discuss your view. (4)

TOTAL SECTION C: 35
SECTION D: POETRY

In this section, there are questions set on the following poems:

- 'Cheetah' by Charles Eglington
- 'A prayer for all my countrymen' by Guy Butler

NOTE: Answer the questions set on BOTH poems, i.e. QUESTION 7.1 AND QUESTION 7.2.

QUESTION 7

7.1 Read the poem carefully and then answer the questions which follow. The number of marks allocated to each question serves as a guide to the expected length of your answer.

Cheetah – Charles Eglington

Indolent and kitten-eyed,
This is the bushveld's innocent
The stealthy leopard parodied
With grinning, gangling pup-content.

Slouching through the tawny grass
Or loose-limbed lolling in the shade,
Purring for the sun to pass
And build a twilight barricade

Around the vast arena where;
In scattered herds, his grazing prey
Do not suspect in what wild fear
They'll join with him in fatal play;

Till hunger draws slack sinews tight
And vibrant as a hunter's bow;
Then, like a fleck of mottled light,
He slides across the still plateau.

A tremor rakes the herds: they scent
The pungent breeze of his advance;
Heads rear and jerk in vigilant
Compliance with the game of chance

In which, of thousands, only one
Is centred in the cheetah's eye;
They wheel and then stampede, for none
Knows which it is that has to die.

His stealth and swiftness fling a noose
And as his loping strides begin
To blur with speed, he ropes the loose
Buck on the red horizon in.
7.1.1 Complete the following sentence by using the words in the list below. Write only the word next to the question number (7.1.1(a)–7.1.1(c)) in the ANSWER BOOK.

| clumsy; speed; disturbs; hunts; leisure; playful |

7.1.2 Refer to stanza 2.

(a) Identify the sound device in line 6.

(b) Use your OWN words to describe what the cheetah is doing in this stanza.

7.1.3 Quote THREE consecutive words from stanza 3 to prove that the following statement is FALSE:

The grazing herds are aware of the cheetah.

7.1.4 Explain the irony in the LAST TWO words of stanza 3 ('fatal play').

7.1.5 Using your OWN words, explain the cheetah’s movement in stanza 4.

7.1.6 Of what is the ‘red horizon’ in the last stanza symbolic?

7.1.7 Identify and discuss the theme evident in this poem.

7.1.8 Do you think the speaker is an expert on wildlife? Discuss your view.

AND
7.2 Read the poem carefully and then answer the questions which follow. The number of marks allocated to each question serves as a guide to the expected length of your answer.

A prayer for all my countrymen – Guy Butler

Though now few eyes can see beyond
this tragic time's complexities,
dear God, ordain
such deed be done,
such words be said,
that men will praise
Your image yet
when all these terrors
and hates are dead:

Through rotting days,
beaten, broken,
some stayed pure;
others learnt how to grin and endure;
and here and there
a heart stayed warm,
a head grew clear.

7.2.1 Choose the correct answer to complete the following sentence. Write only the letter (A–D) next to the question number (7.2.1) in the ANSWER BOOK.

The speaker appeals to God to help heal the ...

A birds.
B ocean.
C animals.
D people.

(1)

7.2.2 Refer to lines 3–4: 'this tragic time's complexities'

(a) Why are the times referred to as 'tragic'?

(1)

(b) What are the 'complexities' and 'terrors' the speaker refers to in lines 4 and 10?

(2)

7.2.3 Refer to lines 5–9: 'dear God, ordain ... Your image yet'

(a) Identify the speaker's tone in these lines.

(1)

(b) Explain why the speaker appeals to God for help.

(2)
7.2.4 Refer to line 12: ‘Through rotting days’

(a) Identify the figure of speech. (1)

(b) Explain how the figure of speech is used here to express the hardship the people endured. (2)

(c) Using your OWN words, give THREE examples to show that some people remained hopeful. (3)

7.2.5 Do you think the title is appropriate to the content of this poem? Discuss your view. (4)
